

June 14, 2018 - updated

Canadian Emergency Nursing Certification Exam Prep Course, 2016

Dear fellow emergency nurse,

Welcome to this on line program that is designed to assist you in preparing to write the canadian emergency nursing certification exam. The program offers a systems based approach and follows the Canadian Nurses Association (CNA) emergency nursing exam blueprint materials. The program is not mean't to be all inclusive but does cover core material.

The program is free!!!!

Instructions to access the core learning modules

Step One:

On the internet search "Open Learning " or go to "openlearning.com"

Step Two:

Create your student account

Step Three:

Once logged in, search for the course

June, 2018 : use this link below as the website was recently updated

<https://www.openlearning.com/courses/emergency-nursing-exam-prep-course>

" Canadian Emergency Nursing certification Exam Prep Course"

Step four :

Click on the course and click "Join Course"

Step five:

Click on "Video and activities" and select the module you would like to complete.

The modules :

Course designer and author:

Margaret Dymond
Director of Education
National Emergency Nurses Association (NENA)
Margaret.dymond@albertahealthservices.ca

Course assistant author

Michelle Tipert
Nurse manager, Bridgewater, Nova Scotia

The design of the program is in a powerpoint format. One slide will pose a question, the next slide will provide the answer and rationale. The program is designed to be interactive.

Useful information:

- At the end of the program, students can print a certificate of completion
- The modules are in PDF format. Go to “View” on the tool bar and select “Read” or “full screen”

Course designer and author:

Margaret Dymond
Director of Education
National Emergency Nurses Association (NENA)
Margaret.dymond@albertahealthservices.ca

Course assistant author

Michelle Tipert
Nurse manager, Bridgewater, Nova Scotia